Notary Public
My commission expires:

TO BE PRESENT DURING THE SIGNING

- The notary or other person taking your “acknowledgment” may be one of the witnesses.
- Toward the top, print your name on the line beginning "That I."
- Print your town and state of residence after the word "of."
- Fill in the names and addresses of the individuals named as your power of attorney, and whose appointment you revoke.
- You should "cross out" unused lines.
- Insert the date on the line beginning "IN WITNESS WHEREOF."
- On the line labeled "L.S.," sign your name and print your name under the line.
- Each of TWO witnesses must sign on one of the two lines labeled "Witness," and should print his or her name under the signature.
- The notary, Connecticut attorney, etc. should ask you if the document is your "free act and deed," fill in the town and date of signing, fill in your name, sign on the line provided, and write in when his or her commission expires (if a notary). If a notary or clerk with a seal, the seal should be embossed onto the document. If a Connecticut attorney, no seal is required.
