

GEORGIA'S STATUTORY FINANCIAL POWER OF ATTORNEY

During the 1995 Georgia General Assembly, the Legislature voted to establish within the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, at § 10-6-140, a statutory form for the Financial Power of Attorney. The form that is set out in the statute may be used to create a Financial Power of Attorney. This form is merely a suggestion and is not the only form permitted to create a Financial Power of Attorney.

The information attached includes an explanation of the Financial Power of Attorney, cautionary language to those considering giving someone power over their financial affairs and instructions for completing the statutory form. Finally, attached is a copy of the form substantially the same as the form that appears in the Official Code of Georgia Annotated.

You may use this actual form or you may have someone prepare this form for you in another format. If you are thinking about executing a Financial Power of Attorney and these instructions are not clear to you, please talk with an attorney before completing the form.

This information is not intended as specific legal advice. It is provided to you as educational material by the Division of Aging Services, an agency within the Department of Human Services, which administers programs for the elderly in the State of Georgia.

The Division of Aging Services is located at 2 Peachtree Street, Suite 9.398, Atlanta, Georgia 30303-3142. For additional information, call (404) 657-5258.

Revised June 2008

EXPLANATION FOR PRINCIPALS

WHAT IS A FINANCIAL POWER OF ATTORNEY?

This document is a “Financial Power of Attorney.” It allows us to name one or more persons to handle our financial or business affairs for us just as we would if we were handling them ourselves. Depending on our individual circumstances, we can give another person or persons all of our authority (power) or some of our authority (powers) to act on our behalf. This document does not give someone the power to make medical decisions or health care decisions for us.

WHAT CAN OUR AGENT DO?

The 'Agent' is the person we give power to handle our financial affairs.

We are the 'Principal'.

Our decision to use this document is a very important one and we should think about carefully and consider what financial decisions we want our Agent to make for us. With this document, we can give our Agent the right to make all financial decisions or only certain, limited decisions.

For example, we can allow our Agent to handle all of our financial affairs, including the power to sell, rent, or mortgage our home, pay our bills, cash or deposit checks, buy and sell our stock, investments, or personal items, or we can allow our Agent to handle only certain or specific financial affairs such as paying our monthly bills.

DOES THIS MEAN WE GIVE ALL OUR POWERS AWAY?

No. We can still handle our own financial affairs as long as we choose to or are able to; however, unless we limit our agent, he or she also has the legal authority to handle our affairs while we are handling our affairs.

We need to talk to our Agent often about what we want and what he or she is doing for us using the document. If our Agent is not following our instructions or doing what we want, we can and should cancel or revoke the document and end our Agent's power to act for us.

HOW DO WE REVOKE OUR FINANCIAL POWER OF ATTORNEY?

We may revoke our financial power of attorney by writing a signed and dated revocation of power of attorney and giving it to our Agent. We should also give it to anyone who has been relying upon the financial power of attorney and dealing with our Agent, such as our bank and investment institutions.

Unless we notify all parties dealing with our Agent of our revocation, they may continue to deal with our Agent. We should contact a lawyer if our Agent continues to act after we have revoked the power of attorney.

WHEN DOES OUR AGENT'S AUTHORITY END?

As long as we are living, the financial power of attorney will remain in effect even if we become incapacitated or unable to communicate our wishes unless:

- (1) A conservator is appointed for our property; or
- (2) We include a date or specific occurrence when we want our document to be canceled.

However, upon our death or the death of our Agent or successor Agents, the document will be canceled and the Agent's power to act for us will end.

We can also include a date or a specific occurrence like our incapacity or illness as the time when we want our document to be canceled and our Agent's power to act for us to end.

WHEN DO THE POWERS TAKE EFFECT?

Depending on our circumstances, we may wish to specify an occurrence or a future date for the document to become effective. Unless we do so, the power of attorney becomes effective immediately.

MUST OUR AGENT DO THOSE THINGS WE AUTHORIZE?

No. But if our Agent accepts this responsibility and agrees to act for us, he or she is required to sign and date the "Acceptance of Appointment" contained in the financial power of attorney form.

HOW DO WE COMPLETE THIS DOCUMENT?

Both the Principal and the Agent should read the full document carefully before initialing or signing. The Principal and the Agent should fully understand what powers are being granted to the Agent and what restrictions, if any, exist.

We should read each paragraph carefully. If we decide to give our Agent the power described in the paragraph, we should initial our name at the end of the paragraph.

If we do not wish to give our Agent the power described in a paragraph, we can strike through and initial the paragraph or any line within a paragraph.

HOW DO WE EXECUTE THE DOCUMENT?

Two adult witnesses must watch us sign our name on the document. At least one witness cannot be the Principal's spouse or blood relative. After they witness us signing our name, the witnesses must sign their names.

This document does not need to be notarized unless real property (land with or without buildings on it) transactions such as leasing, selling, or mortgaging of property are authorized.

THIS DOCUMENT MUST REFLECT THE WISHES OF THE PRINCIPAL

We must not let anyone pressure us into making a financial power of attorney, naming an Agent, or granting a power unless it is our choice.

If we do not understand any portion of this document, we should ask a lawyer to explain it to us.

SAMPLE STATUTORY FORM

As described in the Official Code of Georgia Annotated § 10-6-140 et seq., The Georgia Statutory Form for Financial Power of Attorney shall be substantially as follows:

CAUTION

Be advised that banking institutions are now mandatory reporters for suspected Financial Exploitation under the Disabled Adults and Elder Persons Protection Act. Some banking institutions may be reluctant to accept Financial Powers of Attorney that have been executed under the following situations:

- if the principal does not personally informing the bank that this is being done;
- the financial power of attorney is executed after a physical or mental incapacitating event has already occurred,
- the financial power of attorney form is not one that the banking institution normally uses or is used to seeing, or
- the agent(s) named is/are not known by the banking institution to have been previously associated with the principal.

Should this happen, the principal and/or the agent(s) may have to seek legal advice on how to proceed.
